

SPECTRAL PROBLEMS RELATED TO BOUNDARY LAYERS IN FLUIDS

M HIEBER

Institute of Mathematics
Darmstadt University of Technology
Schloßgartenstr. 7
64289 Darmstadt, Germany

In this talk we consider Ekman boundary layers for the Navier-Stokes equations. Their stability behaviour is determined by spectral properties of the associated Stokes-Coriolis-Ekman operator. We discuss spectral properties of this operator in various function spaces as well as their consequences for the stability of Ekman layers