

SPECTRAL POLLUTION AND THE QUADRATIC PROJECTION METHOD

M STRAUSS
Department of Mathematics
Livingstone Tower
26 Richmond Street
Glasgow G1 1XH
Scotland, UK

For self-adjoint operators we can obtain pollution-free approximation of the spectrum using a quadratic projection method. I will illustrate with an example from magnetohydrodynamics and also consider the convergence properties of the method.